CLOSER LOOK: Brown has a strong hand with 4 of the 7 entrants; also far and away has the most wins in this race (10, including 9 of the last 10); he's reportedly a bit on the fence about running her as he's said she's better with more give in the ground and might not fare too well if it stays firm; no doubt has the quality; after all, she was an OK 3rd in this last year and she's done good work on this inner (both local wins came on this inner course); regular recent riders Ortiz Jr. and Davis end up elsewhere, so r ead into that what you will.

That 4th in the G1 BC F&M Turf at DMR last fall shows she can be scary in a spot like this; that said, she was 90-1 that day so such a bit run was a bit unexpected; after time off came back with 2 good efforts in England including a sharp G2 2nd; trouble is, then came a not-so-hot 7th in a G2 at Royal Ascot last month making you wonder about her current form; still, it's most encouraging they feel good enough about her to ship halfway around the world for this and such a move almost paid off in the BC l ast fall so maybe she's one of those who flourishes in the U.S.

Brown has 4 of the 7 runners and has dominated this race (won 10 times, 9 of last 10); pretty much fired every time and it's most encouraging Jose stays with her; that said, note stablemate and today's foe Portfolio Duration beat her fairly handily on th e Mellon Course here last month; worked well since and as noted she's pretty much fired every time.

Brown has 4 of the 7 runners and has dominated this race (won 10 times, 9 of last 10); maybe she has the most upside of the runners from this barn; after all, she won a G1 on the Mellon Course here last month when able to dictate the pace; and she's no n eed-the-lead type either as she's been successful on the stalk; a bunch of works since that G1 New York win; no Prat today but she's won with other riders so another rider switch isn't a big concern.

Her 3 turf tries were all smart so the footing is no issue; that said, while she handles the sod she's facing a bunch who consider this ground their forte; has speed to be forward from the start and it's nice Johnny V. sees fit to stay; not only facing t ougher she's asked to try a new, longer trip so there are hurdles; but hey, you get Johnny V. and Weaver at a price, never a bad thing.

Brown has 4 of the 7 runners and has dominated this race (won 10 times, 9 of last 10); continues her strong form; speed can have her in it from the start; and while she's been going shorter she's done some of her best work at this trip so maybe she'll be even better with today's added ground; only 2 local starts were mixed but both came on the inner going shorter so maybe moving to the Mellon Course with more ground can help her do even better; favored in 3 straight, all very tough G1s.

She's pretty darn nice, but you wonder about the level; after all, her G1 tries saw her finish 8th and 7th; in her defense, both came going shorter so maybe today's added ground helps; no factor last time out in a G3 at WO but a troubled start didn't he lp; remember, she was favored so somebody saw something they liked; it is really good news, though, she's been dynamite here with a big win on this course last summer so maybe she's just a better gal in these surroundings; didn't get any help from the dr aw and likely needs a move forward, but hey, that isn't out of reach. -Michael Hammersly

1 of 2 with racing experience exiting the field's-best Beyer speed figure when rallying at 1 furlong shorter suggesting this 6F distance will be right up her alley; the workouts for this do not bowl you over; a great sign that her trainer has a win this Saratoga meet already; the one to beat.

CLOSER LOOK: Did some good work going longer but maybe this shorter trip plays better for her; after al, her 3 sprints were her 3 best races; debut win came on this course at this trip, too, so the venue suits; that said, she's facing some toughies but as noted the c utback to a sprint might be key and Mott isn't in the HOF because he puts his horses in the wrong spots, right?

Loads of quality here; beat the boys in the G1 BC Juvenile Turf Sprint as a 2yo last year and her 2 races this year vs. peers were smart; first 2 starts came on this course at this trip so the venue and distance are no bother; has speed to be forward but is no need-the-lead type either; with Irad out of town she's reunited with Johnny V. who was up for those strong first 2 career tries on this course at this trip.

Toss that G3 turf route at GP Feb. 28 and you're left with a bunch of strong turf sprints; this is apparently the game she wants; speed to be in it from the start without being a need-the-lead type; Jose was up for those last 2 sharp outings and stays, n o small matter; sure, the water is a bit deeper but the way she's going says she might well be up to the task; Franco's 1st call.

No doubt one of the ones; her 3 turf tries, all sprints, were smart and 2 of those came on this course at this trip including a decent 3rd in a G3 here last month; has tactical speed and versatility to give her rider options and while this spot is toughe r than what she's been dealing with she's got ample talent and it won't take much of a step forward to make her dangerous.

Invades from Maryland off a game turf sprint SW at LRL; showed speed to stalk and kept on for the win; that was her first start in 7 months, too, so she can improve; of course, she'd better if she's to have say vs. these as the water is quite a bit deepe r today; at least has tactical speed and versatility and that win last time off the long layoff hints she's a much better filly now than she was then; Trombetta doesn't ship just to see the sights and he could have stayed 'home and gone in something at C NL instead, which would surely have been easier.

Main concern is that she's gone the wrong way; showed ample talent here last summer with 2 big wins on this course, and then came a big 2nd in a KD stakes; alas, the pattern since is worrisome as then came a long layoff before 2 dull outings on CD turf; maybe she didn't care for the CD turf and it's nice they're not giving up on her, that there's no subsequent layoff or drop; and maybe that plus the return to this course can get her back on track...maybe.

MTO got good on dirt this spring and sure wouldn't mind getting a shot at a bunch of turf fillies playing on her ground; that said, the other MTO to her right would be formidable as well; speed to be in it from the start and while she's been freshened so me snappy works for her return encourage.

MTO is Franco's 2nd call; looks the stronger of the 2 MTO's as she's proven effective in NY-bred stakes ranks; that includes a sharp 2nd in a stakes on this course last month; of course wouldn't mind getting a shot at a bunch of turf gals playing on her footing; speed to be in it from the start; figures tough if this comes off and note a good run in her only wet-track try, too. -Michael Hammersly
